Das WEF in Davos

The World Economic Forum (WEF) annual meeting takes place in January in Davos. It is a gathering point for board chairmen of more than a thousand member companies, as well as for politicians, university representatives, NGOs, religious leaders, and media personnel. The program focuses on global topics such as capital markets, asset management, international conflicts, environmental issues, and possible solutions, as well as themes of globalization. With approximately 500 journalists from online, print, radio, and television, the event attracts worldwide attention.

Be there in January 2025. Information exchange,思想交流和Networking in unique atmosphere.

Tolle Locations, fascinating personalities and interesting conversations.
